Over £1,000 raised for Children in Need

Newbury, November 23, 2009 – Over 100 employees at Bayer House attended Ocean Clean's fundraising event recently, raising an amazing £1,162.50 in aid of Children in Need.

Bayer's cleaning company in Newbury, Ocean Clean, chose to do something special for children and rallied together selling raffle tickets, baking cakes and organising fun competitions throughout the Children in Need week.

Christine Richards, Ocean Clean's manager comments: "I am so proud of my team for all their hard work in making this event such a success. I'd also like to thank the employees at Bayer House, for being so generous and kind in supporting us and to Bayer's CEO, Martin Dawkins who very kindly announced all 99 raffle ticket winners!"
